DIOCESAN PRAYER FOR THE WEEK: Holy God, your love is our greatest treasure; we thank you for all who over many years have served you boldly, cheerfully and well, proclaiming your word to all who would hear, to rich and poor alike. May all who minister in your name today do so with diligence, discipline and humility, fearing nothing but the loss of you and drawing all to you through Jesus Christ our Saviour; who lives and reigns with you in the communion of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

TODAY IN OUR PRAYERS: Today is the Day of Remembrance for Road Traffic Victims, also known as Roadpeace Sunday. Pray for all bereaved in this way, for those living with injuries or trauma, and for the members of the emergency services who attend accidents. Pray too for Roadpeace services, including one at Hereford Cathedral, and for all who will attend them. In the wider Anglican Church, pray for the church in Bermuda, The Rt Revd Nicholas Dill, and for all who live or worship in that part of the world. Pray for the church where it is persecuted or opposed, and for all who face discrimination because of their beliefs. In our diocese, pray for the Pontesbury Deanery, for the Rural Dean (Revd Giles Tulk) and all who minister, serve or live in the parishes of that Deanery. In the wider world, continue to pray for the people of Sulawesi in Indonesia, for all seeking to help them, and for the Emergency Disasters Committee Appeal. Continue to pray for the peace of the world, for all places of fear and conflict, and for those who work for peace: for the Middle East, especially for Syria, Iraq and the Yemen; for Afghanistan; for every family where there is division: for all victims of famine and for communities damaged by natural disaster. Among the sick, we pray for Natalie, Elspeth Barkes, Margaret Adams, Frank Davies, and any others known to us, with all who support and care for them. Remember all who have died recently, and all who mourn.

NEXT SUNDAY 25 November– Sunday next before Advent / Christ the King
